The First Presbyterian Church

Rev. Dr. W. H. Pheley, Minister.

It surely was warm last Sunday, but the goodly number who were present at the evening service and heard Mr. W. A. Zapfe sing were well repaid by the choice selections of inspiring sacred music rendered. Each song was a sermon in sentiment and up-lift of worship.

We hope to have Mr. Zapfe direct our choir and if there is sufficient local interest we are reasonably assured of his splendid leadership. It will be a musical education for anyone in a choir directed by Mr. Zapfe.

We need several more voices, especially male voices, to well round out our choir, and we solicit the hearty co-operation of all who can sing, or are willing to learn.

If you are interested in good music, either as a singer or as a worshiper in the church, kindly speak to Mr. W. H. Pheley, Miss Beatrice Van Norman or the pastor.

This is an opportunity to enrich our musical service and that means to enrich our whole service of worship.
